Reds Sending Arms To West, CIA Head Says

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (INS) —

The director of the central intelligence agency said tonight that Russia is offering arms to nations other than Egypt, "even to countries in the Western hemisphere."

In an interview on the American Broadcasting Co. radio show, "New Sounds For You," Allen W. Dulles, CIA director, said that Russian subversive policies will continue as before.

Dulles said that the CIA has seen no evidence "that the Soviet Union has renounced any of its subversive tactics or changed its policy." He added that the shipping of arms to nations of the Middle East was "pretty good evidence" of Russian intent.

Dulles said that his office has "increasing evidence" that Russia was making arms offers to nations of the Western Hemisphere, adding that "less than two years ago it was a shipment of Czech arms to Guatemala which alerted the free world to the danger that that country was facing a Communist takeover."

He added that the Soviets are not "likely to forget how nearly they succeeded in that." (Guatemala) and they may try the same thing over again in other parts, even of this continent.
